

ANOHNI, Drone Bomb Me

Lord, drone bomb me
Blow me from the mountains
And into the sea
Blow me from the side of the mountain
Blow my head off
Explode my crystal guts
Lay my purple on the grass

I have a glint in my eye
I go die, I want to die
I want to be the apple of your eye

So, drone bomb me
Blow me from the mountains
And into the sea
Blow me from the side of the mountain
Blow my head off
Explode my crystal guts
Lay my purple on the grass

Let me be the first
I'm not so innocent
Let me be the one
The one that you choose from above
(After all), I'm partly to blame

So, drone bomb me
Blow me from the mountains
And into the sea
Blow me from the side of the mountain
Blow my head off
Explode my crystal guts
Lay my purple on the grass

My blood, my blood
Choose me tonight
Let me be the one
The one that you choose tonight
