

Anorexia, Straving for attention

Bones are beautiful
My drug of choice
Striving for perfection
And I'm driven to Run to you
In the wrong direction
How does that make you feel?
Why can't I make you see?
Mom and Daddy look
It's your little girl
Starving for attention
Too much on my plate
Things that I can't face
Starving for attention
I can't be myself
The mirror tells
Lies and says I'm ugly
Am I really here?
I cut my skin
It takes a knife to find me
I can't make me feel
So now I have to bleed
Mom and Daddy look
It's your little girl
Starving for attention
Too much on my plate
Things that I can't face
Starving for attention
Hungry empty
Lost in her pain
She can't tell you
So she slowly fades away
Mom and Daddy look
It's your little girl
Dying for attention
Too much on her plate
Things that she can't face
Starving for attention
Craving your attention
She's dying for your attention
