

Another Black Day, Hallowed

Will I find, what I need and then justify, my own life
And I'm vilified, for my sins, but I've found a home, I'm condemned
This obsession with the filth I breathe
Tears my soul it makes my life complete
Don't think nothing can stop me now
No! Have I lost my way?
Yeah, hallowed be the pain
Don't think nothing can stop me now
No! Have I lost my way?
Yeah, hallowed be the pain
Raise me from the dead, and then justify my own life
I am crucified, by my hands, I have found a home, I'm condemned
This obsession with the filth I breathe
Tears my soul it makes my life complete
Don't think nothing can stop me now
No! Have I lost my way?
Yeah, hallowed be the pain
Don't think nothing can stop me now
No! Have I lost my way?
Yeah, hallowed be the pain
I'm condemned
I'm condemned
Will I find, what I need and then justify, my own life
And I'm vilified, for my sins, but I've found a home, I'm condemned
This obsession with the filth I bring
Tears my soul it makes my life complete
Don't think nothing can stop me now
No! Have I lost my way?
Yeah, hallowed be the pain
Don't think nothing can stop me now
No! Have I lost my way?
Yeah, hallowed be the pain
Hallowed
Hallowed
I'm condemned
