Another Black Day, Hallowed

Will I find, what I need and then justify, my own life And I'm vilified, for my sins, but I've found a home, I'm condemned This obsession with the filth I breathe Tears my soul it makes my life complete Don't think nothing can stop me now No! Have I lost my way? Yeah, hallowed be the pain Don't think nothing can stop me now No! Have I lost my way? Yeah, hallowed be the pain Raise me from the dead, and then justify my own life I am crucified, by my hands, I have found a home, I'm condemned This obsession with the filth I breathe Tears my soul it makes my life complete Don't think nothing can stop me now No! Have I lost my way? Yeah, hallowed be the pain Don't think nothing can stop me now No! Have I lost my way? Yeah, hallowed be the pain I'm condemned I'm condemned Will I find, what I need and then justify, my own life And I'm vilified, for my sins, but I've found a home, I'm condemned This obsession with the filth I bring Tears my soul it makes my life complete Don't think nothing can stop me now No! Have I lost my way? Yeah, hallowed be the pain Don't think nothing can stop me now No! Have I lost my way? Yeah, hallowed be the pain Hallowed Hallowed I'm condemned
