

Anouk, Whatever You Say

Whatever you say babe,
Don't you know
I'm not afraid because
I know just where to go
I'm loving you babe
All the time
I know that love will find a place for
You and I

I know I should have called you first but I couldn't stop myself from driving to you just to see
You smiling makes me wanna be with you
Is that all right?
Boy I just can't help myself
And that's the reason why

Whatever you say babe,
Don't you know
I'm not afraid because
I know just where to go
I'm loving you babe
All the time
I know that love will find a place for
You and I

Well
I'm driving in my car the music plays
The way you make me feel it's like
I'm walking on air
I'll make you believe again that lovers do stay
And every now and then we fight without walking away

Baby you just drive me crazy
Forget the world
For a while
Doesn't matter
Gotta have you
In my arms
That is were I'll stay

Whatever you say babe,
Don't you know
I'm not afraid because
I know just where to go
I'm loving you babe
all the time
I know that love will find a place for
You and I

Baby baby baby baby baby
