

Antestor, Materalisic Lie

Satisfaction death reaction Lifeless being life deceiving
Materialistic lie existing till you die
The world cannot give nor let you live Lustful bodies skinned to the core still crying out for so much more Needing eyes filled with desire made to be just another liar Turn away it's hell to pay
Not a very nice place to stay
When you die the needing eyes cry there's nothing left to consume
All that you've worked for falls through the dust there's only hell left to pay for your lust
Materialistic lie existing till you die
The world cannot give nor let you live
