

Anthem, Emotionless

hey dad
im writing to you not to tell you that i still hate you just to ask you how you feel and how we fell apart how this fell apart are you happy out there in this great wide world? do u think about you sons?
do you miss your little girl?
when you lay your head down how do you sleep at night?
do you even wonder if we're alright?
but we're alright we're alright

~chorus~
its been a long hard road without you by my side why werent you there the nights that we cried? you broke my mothers heart you broke your children for life its not okay but we're alright i remember the days you were a hero in my eyes but those are just a long lost memory of mine i spent so many years learning how to survive now im writing just to let you know i'm still alive the days i spent so cold so hungry were full of hate i was so angry the scars run deep inside this tatoood body theres things i'll take to my grave but i'm okay i'm okay

~chorus~

sometimes i forgive yeah and theres times i let live dad i miss you said i miss you

sometimes i forgive yeah and this time i let live dad i miss you i miss you hey dad
