

Anthem, Wondering

If you want me to wait
I will wait for you
If you tell me to stay
I would stay right thru
If you don't wanna say anything at all
I'm happy wondering

Go!

Yea Yea

Since I was a young man
Never was a fun man
Never had a plan and no security
Then ever since I met you
Never could forget you
I only wanna get you right here next to me

Cause everybody (oh whooo) needs someone that they can trust
And you're somebody (oh whooo) that i found just in time

If you want me to wait
I will wait for you
If you tell me to stay
I would stay right thru
If you don't wanna say anything at all
I'm happy wondering

Now my life is changing it always rearranging
It always getting stranger than i it ever could Ever since i found you i wanna be around you
I wanna get down to the point where i need you

Cause everybody (oh whooo) needs someone that they can trust
And you're somebody (oh whooo) that i found just in time

If you want me to wait
I will wait for you
If you tell me to stay
I would stay right thru
If you don't want to say anything at all
I'm happy wondering

Go

Yea yea

Yea yea

Don't tell me the bad news
Don't tell me anything at all
Just tell me that you need me
And stay right here with me

If you want me to wait
I will wait for you
If you tell me to stay
I would stay right thru
If you don't wanna say anything at all
I'm happy wondering

If you want me to wait
I will wait for you
If you tell me to stay

I would stay right thru
If you don't wanna say anything at all
I'm happy wondering
