

Anthony B, Damage

I and I defend the down press is a must
In a need I and I nuh fight nor fuss
Caw everything them dem she rightful own belong to us
My fadduh done tell I and I everything shall fall to I and I is a muss
So Babylon set the liberty, everyday anudda one bite the duss
My Lawd
You dont have to say you are sorry
For all the wrongs that you have done
I dont want to hear some story
Cuz the damage already done
Oh the damage already done
Broken bones and homes need tender repair
Hang on brother man dont despair (Hold on)
Although we fall deep
Seventy times seven
Still the damage already done
So much damage already done
Stop and listen a while to meditation style
Going straight to your mind through ya wicked and wile
Only way you can deal with this vibes is to free up ya soul and mind
Yagga Yagga Yagga Yagga Yoi
You dont have to say you are sorry
For all the wrongs that you have done
I dont want to hear some story
Cuz the damage already done
Oh the damage already done
Everybody wants their piece of mind
Trying to justify how they deal with mankind
Sometimes I wonder how they sleep at night time
When all the damage already done
Oh the damage already done
Stop and listen a while to meditation style
Going straight to your mind through ya wicked and wile
Only way you can deal with this vibes is to free up ya soul and mind
Yagga Yagga Yagga Yagga Yoi
You dont have to say you are sorry
For all the wrongs that you have done
I dont want to hear some story
Cuz the damage already done
Oh the damage already done
