

Anthony Callea, Now You're Gone

I know you don't want me
Don't wanna hear me crying
But I can't help myself this time
What's the right way
The way to say goodbye
These tears I cry are filled with pride
Everyone has come to celebrate this life
There's so much love right here
They will never take the place you leave behind

[Chorus:]
Now you're gone
I stand here proud
Though I'll never see your face again
I'm surrounded by your grace
Can't you hear me calling out your name
Somehow this doesn't seem real
I'll only see you in my dreams

Now you're gone

I know you had a good life
It doesn't make it any easier
I guess we all gotta fly someday
The lessons you gave me
I'll remember forever
Until the day I die
Everyone has come to celebrate this life
There's so much love right here
They will never take the place you leave behind

[Chorus]

I know you don't want me
Don't wanna hear me crying

[Chorus]
