Anthony Green

Avalon

Califone

Come and you will find here.

roses have lost their love a man played for too long tonight the soldier said im not worth the

califone i love you

but your doing colorless

but your singing so natural again

the band played for too long tonight the soldier said I'm not as strong as you remember

califone i love you
