

Anthony Hamilton, Diamond In The Ruff

Better, baby
Looking at you, I can tell, you've had hard times in your life
Now it's time for me to make everything right
I wanna shower you with lovely things, help you smile again
I wanna get to know you, make it right so you can breathe again
You're my diamond in the rough, girl
And I'm here to make it better
You're my diamond in the rough, girl
And we gone shine in love together
I see the scars from the broken heart, life's got you down
And the bags under your eyes have the smiles inside
That's tearing you apart
Girl, you looking at change
I'm a man who prays and I'm strong in faith
God must've had a plan, placed you in my hand
Let me lead the way
You're my diamond in the rough, girl
And I'm here to make it better
You're my diamond in the rough, girl
And we gone shine in love together
You're my diamond in the rough, girl
And I'm here to make it better
You're my diamond in the rough, girl
And we gone shine in love together
You're my diamond in the rough, girl
And I'm here to make it better
You're my diamond in the rough, girl
And we gone shine in love together
You're my diamond in the rough, girl
And I'm here to make it better
You're my diamond in the rough, girl
And we gone shine in love together
You're a princess cut
Uranium, you're flawless, girl
You don't have to bow
Brilliant baby, shine better than all I know
You're my diamond in the rough, girl
And I'm here to make it better
You're my diamond in the rough, girl
And we gone shine in love together
You're my diamond in the rough, girl
And we gone shine in love forever
