I Will Find You

I've hurt my reputation and I know the reasons why in every situation

someone said goodbye

still the road is paved away from earth

I'll see the light again

I know that what I've hungered is jus beyond the ben

I believe that I will find you

it's written on the wind

I will find you

Where the journey ends, love will let me in

I will know your face, and I'll be home

And now my summer's over with winter closing in

I have to run for shelter far from where I've been Oh the rain becomes a river and grapes turn into wine

I spent another season, jus' waitin' for my time

I believe that I will find you

I will find you

Where the journey ends, love will let me in

I will know your face, and I'll be home

[2 Times]

I will know your face.. I'll be...

Somewhere you are dreaming

Your ship is on its way and when I'm there beside you

We'll make it worth the wait
