

Anthony Marc, Love Won't Get Any Better

Anthony Marc

Mended

Love Won't Get Any Better

[Verse 1:]

Look what you do to me

Oh girl, I must admit that this is new to me.

And I never thought that love could come so easily.

'Til you opened up my eyes to how it's supposed to be.

I'd never known love to be so pure and gentle.

In all I've seen love was quite this simple.

It was for me so lonely and so temperamental.

[Chorus:]

Holding you is the safest place no doubt about it

Kissing you makes me wonder how I lived without it

Wanting you is as natural as natural can be

Love won't get any better

[Verse 2:]

Finally I hold my head up high 'cause you belong to me

And I'm catching myself smiling over everything

You should know that I am proud to have you next to me.

I'd never known love to be so pure and gentle

In all I've seen love was never quite this simple

It was for me lonely and so temperamental

[Repeat Chorus]

Girl I'm in love with you

I live to kiss and touch you

I always knew

You'd be the one to run to

I'd say I do

And girl you know I'd mean it

'Cause having you, living you, trusting you,

Is all I wanna do
