

Anthony Marc, Remember Me

Anthony Marc
Marc Anthony
Remember Me
it's not enough
to say i've loved and lost just a thought
to know i had it all
times can change
but love will not grow old turn the page
turn down this bed alone [chorus:]
do you still remember me how could you forget
you're everything i need i'm out here on the ledge there's no words for me to say and too much to regret you're where i should be
do you remember when i let you go
what was i thinking of
i'll never know
what it's like to love
but there's no way
how can i replace
love so strong
when i can't forget your face [repeat chorus]
we used to dance
i used to sing
do you remember
you and me
'cause if i could hold your hand
i'd be a king
'cause i remember
everything [repeat chorus]
