

Anti-Flag, Anthem For The New Millennium Generation

We stand against every lie they tell.

We fight!

They lie!

Cause if we fall for the spin they sell.

We fight!

We die!

Orwellesque headlines; we have heard it all before.

As the 21st century becomes 1984.

The new millennium generation will kick down their locked doors.

You're going to hear us sing:

We won't go

We won't answer the call

We won't go

We won't answer the call

We know that you're lying;

That you never tell the truth

So we won't go

So we won't go

So we won't go

Anymore

Because we don't believe

No we don't believe

We can't repeat the mistakes of the past

March Off!

To die!

But we can take back control of the world

Take back our lives.

Why should it be the poor to die in combat zones?

While congress and their children sits safe in lavish homes?

The new millennium generation will kick down their locked doors.

They're going to hear us sing:

We won't go

We won't answer the call

We won't go

We won't answer the call

We know that you're lying;

That you never tell the truth

So we won't go

So we won't go

So we won't go

Anymore

No!

We'll stand as one! We'll say

"We will not go!" [x2]

We'll stand as one

We won't go

We won't answer the call

We won't go

We won't answer the call

We know that you're lying;

That you never tell the truth

So we won't go

So we won't go

So we won't go

So we won't go

So we won't go

So we won't go

So we won't go

So we won't go

So we won't go
