

Anti-Hero, Lullaby

Close your eyes, go to sleep
For in your head, you will meet your dreams
You were told to forget these things
So now, you live only in your dreams
And I know what it's like
And I don't wanna live like that
And I have lived through all that pain
So I will not be ashamed and let me dreams die
Hold your breath, block out the sounds
Of the world as it goes round
You weren't meant for this place
You're safer in your secret space
Close your eyes, go to bed
I'll meet you there, inside your head
I won't let you forget these things
Together we'll live out our dreams
