

Antichrisis, We Are The Witches

A gathering at night
A knock-knock on the door
Dressed in a red cloak Her eyes gleaming with delight
The moment she's been waiting for finally arrived
Sister's waiting for her
While the stars are shining bright Incubus and succubus
The evil foe has cursed on us
The Demons rise on Hallowmass
Oh, this devilishness...
A plague came over us again striking down my fellow-men
The priest became a scatterbrain
My word for it, Mister!
The churchyard it came tumbling down
The king of kings: A brainless clown
The prior stuck in the eiderdown and I had to witness!
The piper played a dancing tune and all came out on Harvest Moon Altars staying unillumed and women sinister!
Now she's awake
Dancing in the firelight
The dragon's call resounds
The serpent's kiss ignites
The fire of love
The dawning of a new day
Oh, sister of the night
You're the light of the world
Spellbound they're screaming in the street How could we fall? Oh, this defeat...
The ruthless on the losing streak
We are so wasted!
So stupid that we did not see How all those things should really be The eyesore of humanity a flawed mastermind!
What once seemed apprehensible has turned into dispensible because of being nonsensical
We should have been basted!
But now we've come to realize the senselessness of alibis and squander of self-sacrifice so deaf, dull and blind!
We are the flow, we are the ebb
We are the weavers, we are the web
We are the flow, we are the ebb
We are the witches back from the dead
See me, I am life and it's your birthright to walk proud and strong Come dance with the tide
We've been there before And we shall return for now and evermore
now and evermore...
We are the flow, we are the ebb
We are the weavers, we are the web
We are the flow, we are the ebb
We are the witches back from the dead

Up on the hill she peers down by the sea she waits Her sisters gathering by her side until disturbance dies
It was another case of self-fulfilling prophecy Those faithful believers submerging in their agony Did they really think their deeds justified abysmal greed ignoring all the human needs
A ploy of indulgence!
Insane with egomania vampires from Transylvania spiritual pyromania ashes to ashes...
Obsessed with their morbidity the morons of stupidity caused nothing but sheer faggery
A lack of common sense!
Their madness turned to matricide religious sort of cyanide
We salute your suicide:
Your kingdom crashes!
We are the flow, we are the ebb
We are the weavers, we are the web
We are the flow, we are the ebb
We are the witches back from the dead
We are the flow, we are the ebb
We are the weavers, we are the web
We are the flow, we are the ebb
We are the witches back from the dead
