

Anya Marina, Clean & Sober

Darling you know I loved you something like a drug
Darling I twist and turn so in & out of love

And now I say I'm glad it's over
And I've never felt so clean and sober
But I've got a black & blue hangover

Darling for you, Darling I do
Darling you know you tell me tiny little lies
Darling you're such a pro with pretty little lines
And so you say you're glad it's over
And you've never felt so clean and sober
And you wish me luck and four leaf clovers
Darling you do, darling you do

I hope you die a fiery death
I love you. God, I need you yeah
I hope you choke
I wish you all the best for all the rest of your days

Darling I do...

And though I say I'm glad it's over
And I've never felt so clean and sober
I've got a black & blue hangover

And though I say I'm glad it's over
And I've never felt so clean and sober
I've got a black & blue hangover
I've got a black & blue hangover
I've got a black & blue hangover

Darling for you, darling I do
