

Anybody Killa, Kill Me

Anybody Killa
Hatchet Warrior
Kill Me
Hatchet Warrior:Kill Me

You betta kill me or you die
40 sipping bullets filling the sky
When Anybody Killa ride ain't no stopping me
Bulletproof preventing you from popping me
Unless your targets on my face don't think to call yourself a G
Cause me and my heater don't like no set tripping hoes bugging hard in my warzone
Crack ya dome to the skull, blame it on the alchohol
Mixed it with the tylenol, and peel ya body off the wall

(Chorus)

You betta kill me or you die! (DIE!)
I was put here to kill people, that's the reason that I'm alive
You betta kill me or you die! (DIE!)
I was put here to kill people, that's the reason that I'm alive

Bitch I'll kill you for your necklace
And drag your ass behind my ride around the hood on some "I'm just being senseless"
And flash the brights at the cops like "FUCK YA'LL"
Keep ya bitches on your toes, better duck ya'll
3 bullets enter into the automobile
Now ones coughing blood and the other hug the steering wheel
Now I'm peeling out down the alleyway
ABK is a killa and the killa don't play

(Chorus)

You betta kill me or you die! (DIE!)
I was put here to kill people, that's the reason that I'm alive
You betta kill me or you die! (DIE!)
I was put here to kill people, that's the reason that I'm alive

Say I'm a dead man? Bitch that's my homie Blaze
And we been choking mothafuckas since the old days
See it's something about choking a mothafucka out
That makes you wanna scream and shout and rip his motherfucking soul out
Stab you in the side with a machete blade
And watch the blood trickle down like black cherry kool-aid
Cause I don't want you living, and plus this killa high
So if you stepping better kill me or you fucking die

(Chorus x2)

You betta kill me or you die! (DIE!)
I was put here to kill people, that's the reason that I'm alive
You betta kill me or you die! (DIE!)
I was put here to kill people, that's the reason that I'm alive
