

Anybody Killa, Thoughts Of Suicide

Hey man you alright

Nope

I seen how your ol girl comin down on u

Yea

What happened? Ur pops find out u lost that job and shit

Mmm hmm

Well don't worry homie, parents be like that sometimes. it's like they mad at you cuz they gettin old

Yes in my mind I wanna do it

But when I pursue it

I can't seem tog o through it

So I'ma write a song just so you can feel

When I'm in the mood to kill myself

I can't control it

These thoughts of suicide

I'm always feelin it

And I kno I'm not alone when it comes to this

Cuz everyday it's like the whole worlds pissed

So fucc ya attitude

And keep ur bad mood

Cuz I got one too

And I don't give a shit

Who you rollin wit

Bring ur whole damn crew

Well call it suicide

When u messin wit a killa someones bound to die

And it wont be me

Cuz only one claimin my life is G-O-D

Chorus

You eva thought of suicide

You eva thought of suicide

You eva thought of suicide

Glad u didn't do it

If you did you wouldn't be here now

Are you easily influenced

Does ur parents always say that ur friends is the reason ur awlays ruined

Do you have hate for ur boss

Where u wanna catch him alone an dpop one off

Fucc work

Or is it mental health

Where the only problem u have is wit yo self

Can someone please explain

Why it feels so good to cause so much pain

With all these thoughts we have

Yup it's easy to say to just realx

But when u that fed up

Only thing in ur mind is how deep to cut

Bcuz u hate ur life and u really don't care

And things would be better if you just werent here

So now u ready to go end it all

Instead of thinkin of the ones you wont see tomorrow

Chorus

It's nothing nice

I got them thoughts steadily runnin through my head

I close my eyes and try to picture if I'm better off dead

The one and only as I sit here by my lonely

Seperated from the world cuz the world is so phony

Hear my cries let me ride and when u do it tell no lies

Where the skies I can see it in ur mutha fuccin eyes

It's suicide

If you wanna get inside

U can try if u wanna get inside

It's ya boy shotgun and I'm reday to die

Do people that commit suicide go to heaven

I'm sure everyone has their own theories

But I'm a firm believer that if you take your own life
Your soul is trapped
Chorus
