

Anybody Killa, Trails Of Tears

Everyboddy runnin actin like they don't where they goin

Repeat

As I walk through the trails of life

I get so disturbed

So little time wit so much to learn

All these faces asking for me to help

But I'm barely gettin through this myself

That's why I'm here writin

Poem is therapy

Put pain into words

Make it all fit together just to share it with the world

That's why some people just don't understand

Cuz my rhymes are like the puzzles

That they mind can't comprhend

But that's a path they chose

The lonely road

Where the street signs read

You're now out of control

Not me though

I'm in it for the long haul

So I'ma fuccin make it even if I have to crawl

I'm not the type that wants to learn from mistakes

So every chance I get I think of moves to make

I'm underestimated but I'm still here

Cuz the name of the trail I'm on is

Have No Fear

As I walk through these trails (which way do I go)

I see

As I walk through these trails (which way do I go)

I see

Are you lost

Do you know which to go

The path you're on

Is it fast or is it slow

Is it everything that you always dreamed

Or is it just a little more than what it seems

Are you headed on the one that fits

Or do you wish you could go bacc and switch it up right quick

Now I mean right is in the right path

And quicc is in a hurry

For all them slow muh fuccas always act like they don't hear me

This is my last attempt for your attention

Anymore wasted time would just be a failed mission

If you ain't down why even mention my name

Tryin to hate on me

Cuz of your own self shame

Some only do it cuz they wish they was me

That's why the path that they lead is called Wack MC

Us macho warriors keep shit real

Keep walking the concrete trails

Ready to killa at will

I'm wit ya

Chorus

It's time to take you on a whole new journey

But we gotta sticc together

Cuz it might get lonely

We headed through the muddy swamps for real

And this experience might change how you feel

Whether it's good, bad happy, or sad

Jus as long as you follow you gon find yo path

And where it ends it's all up to you

Jus as long as you try your best to make through

Let's go

Chorus til end
