In Your Smile
(claude s.)

I feel the sun outside the wind,
Blows all the leaves away.
I give you what you see,
In the truth in all these days.

I look in your face
And see the change
I made in you.
You give me what you feel,
It's so small...

In your smile,
I found the words.

In your smile,
I found the words.

In your smile,
I found the truth.

In your smile,
In your smile...

I look in the greyness
And the fall between
My bitter hands.
You opened up the years,
And stole away the tears.

I owe you the endless hours
That you gave up for me.
I give you what you see,
If you still believe...

In your smile,
I found the words.

In your smile.
In your smile.

In your smile,
I found the words.

In your smile.
In your smile...

In your smile.
