

Anytime, You Got The Bomb

C'mon
C'mon
I can't remember
The last time I felt this way
You're keeping a smile on my face
You know exactly how I tick
Every time I light the wick
Seems like you're ready to explode
I want you to know
You got the bomb
Just can't get enough
You got the bomb, bomb
Just keep on blowin' me up
You got the bomb, bomb
Just can't get enough
You got the bomb, bomb
Blowin' me up
I recall the first time I kissed your lips
Think I'm gonna shout about it
Baby, there's no doubt about it
Whenever you want me, girl, I'm there
Whatever the time, girl, I don't care
I got no place to go
Baby, I know
You got the bomb
Just can't get enough
You got the bomb, bomb
Just keep on blowin' me up
You got the bomb, bomb
Just can't get enough
You got the bomb, bomb
Blowin' me up
Every day and night I pray
You'll never take your love away
You're all that I want, all that I need
You got the bomb
The bomb
Keep on blowing me up
You got the bomb
Just can't get enough
You got the bomb, bomb
Blowing me up
Can I hear you say, hey, hey, hey, yeah?
Can I hear you say, hey, hey, yeah yeah?
You got it, you got the bomb, baby
Keep on blowin' me up
You got the bomb, baby
You got the bomb, you got the bomb, yeah
