Anytime, You Got The Bomb

C'mon C'mon

I can't remember

The last time I felt this way

You're keeping a smile on my face

You know exactly how I tick

Every time I light the wick

Seems like you're ready to explode

I want you to know

You got the bomb

Just can't get enough

You got the bomb, bomb

Just keep on blowin' me up

You got the bomb, bomb

Just can't get enough

You got the bomb, bomb

Blowin' me up

I recall the first time I kissed your lips

Think I'm gonna shout about it

Baby, there's no doubt about it

Whenever you want me, girl, I'm there

Whatever the time, girl, I don't care

I got no place to go

Baby, I know

You got the bomb

Just can't get enough

You got the bomb, bomb

Just keep on blowin' me up

Just can't get enough

You got the bomb, bomb

Blowin' me up

Every day and night I pray

You'll never take your love away

You're all that I want, all that I need

You got the bomb

The bomb

Keep on blowing me up

You got the bomb

Just can't get enough

You got the bomb, bomb

Blowing me up

Can I hear you say, hey, hey, hey, yeah?

Can I hear you say, hey, hey, yeah yeah?

You got it, you got the bomb, baby

Keep on blowin' me up

You got the bomb, baby

You got the bomb, you got the bomb, yeah
