

Apocalyptica, Live Or Die (feat. Joakim Broden)

our soul shivers in the cold and the darkness our bodies crumble from the weight laid upon us we're just the prey on the hunting grounds there's nothing we can do then to fight it cause no man will ever stand to survive it ashes, ashes, we all fall down but if we wanted the truth we wouldn't buy their lies and follow the fools and their battles cries for nothing we lose

and does it matter
matter if we live or die?
if we live or die

we're out of reach from each other in the shadows we lost count of the numbers in the death toll these are faked and distorted times cryin' out for desperate measures for a vengeance that will carry on forever but the king will never pay for its price so if we wanted the truth we wouldn't buy their lies and follow the fools and their battle cries

our bodies crumble from the weight laid upon us nothing we can crumble from the weight laid upon us no man will ever stand to survive it

but if we wanted the truth we wouldn't buy their lies
and follow the fools and their battles cries
matter if we live or die?
if we live or die
but if we wanted the truth we wouldn't buy their lies
and follow the fools and their battles cries
matter if we live or die?
matter if we live or die
if we live or die
