

Apostle Of Hustle, Dark Is What I Want/Strutter's

some rock, sometime, so whats up with your neighborhood block? you rode a bull, is that a fact?
well, it dropped you on the corner with the darkness deep in tact, I see, most do euthanize, my invisible sensation, don't ever leave me dry, it gets late, comes on strong, well there's so much work to do, dark is what I want, when you walk, you walk tall, because you know your enemies and they wanna see you crawl, a little rush holds the key, well the third time from behind, dark is what you dream, in town,
around,
well lets make use of eachother until somebody drowns, rest a while, restaurant, well, I know I may look hungry, girl, dark is what I want
