

Apostle Of Hustle, Sleepwalking Ballad

i can't take the world mama pass me another cup (hush...)
i can't take the world
pass me another cup (hush...)
you know you are
stumbling, falling down
dear mama,
i can't stand up

i went in to the wrong house last night i crawled into the wrong bed [2x]

you know i,
kissed the wrong woman
i tell the boys:
"you know i got the wrong hair";

i have had all my fun in this world
all i got left is misery
i have had all my fun and (in this world)
all i got left is misery

there it is like a mountain
we're standing in front of me

i'd like to...
thank you
to the girl who...
what's your first name?
five... four... forgot...
yeah!
