

Apple Fiona, Love Ridden

Apple Fiona

When The Pawn...

Love Ridden

Love ridden, Ive looked at you

With the focus I gave to my birthday candles

Ive wished on the lidded blue flames

Under your brow

And baby, I wished for you

Nobody sees when you are lying in your bed

And I wanna crawl in with you

But I cry instead

I want your warm, but it will only make

Me colder when it's over

So I cant tonight, baby

No, not baby anymore - if I need you

Ill just use your simple name

Only kisses on the cheek from now on

And in a little while, well only have to wave

My hand wont hold you down no more

The path is clear to follow through

I stood too long in the way of the door

And now Im giving up on you

No, not baby anymore - if I need you

Ill just use your simple name

Only kisses on the cheek from now on

And in a little while, well only have to wave

No, not baby anymore - if I need you

Ill just use your simple name

Only kisses on the cheek from now on

And in a little while, well only have to wave
