

Appleseed Cast, The Page

im tired of waiting in this hollow state pushing aside things i want to say its taken my heart to give a little bit pulling my dreams to feel myself sink the page is blank the pen is down im working it out

its been a while i have something to say but the page is blank my pen is down

what's this feeling inside, thats coming out the page is blank my pen is down

the pen and the paper i wouldnt know
but the page is blank my pen is down
