

April Matson, Right in front of my

I didnt hear when they said it
Time heals a wound of heart
Im flow in and I wonder
How have I came so far
I find myself in a new day
Where things were far apart
In front of my
Tonights chance a lay now I can see
Everything is right in front of my
Opportunity take a chance for romance
Lets see what this night can give
Now turn around here I go
Trap in the seizure
I close my eyes and breath
In the still of this moment
It all come clear to my
I cant stay in this same place
Things my far apart
In said of my
Tonights chance a lay now I can see
Everything is right in front of my
Opportunity take a chance for romance
Lets see what this night can give
Take my hand
For one more dance
Hold my close till its done
This is are night
Lets take it now
Just look how far we go
Tonights chance a lay now I can see
Everything is right in front of my
Opportunity take a chance for romance
Lets see what this night can give
Tonights chance a lay now I can see
Everything is right in front of my
Opportunity take a chance for romance
Lets see what this night can give
