

April Wine, Last Time I Sing The Blues

(Myles Goodwyn)

Published by Northern Goody Two Tunes, Ltd./CAPAC - ASCAP

It's the last time I'll ever sing the blues
I've made my mind up, I've had enough, I'm through with you
You know it, I'm gonna walk away
Don't need it anymore, it's time I had my say

We used to rock and roll and carry on
We used to laugh and play the fool, but it's gettin' me down
The last time, the last time, I'll ever sing the blues
It's the last time, I ain't lyin'
It's the last time, the last time, I'll sing the blues for you
It's the last time, it's true

I'll make it quite clear, it's time to face the news
I cried my heart out, I sang the blues for you
But I won't worry, it doesn't mean a thing
Cause once I'm gone girl, there's no one you can blame

We used to rock and roll and carry on
We used to laugh and play the fool, but it's gettin' me down
It's the last time, the last time, I'll ever sing the blues
It's the last time, the last time, baby I ain't lyin'
It's the last time, the last time, I'm singin' the blues for you
It's the last time, baby I'm through

I'm feelin' better now that I'm sure
After tonight girl, I won't see you anymore
I tried to make it, I tried to believe
But all you ever did was lie and deceive

We used to rock and roll and carry on
We used to laugh and play the fool, but it's gettin' me down
It's the last time, the last time, I'll ever sing the blues
It's the last time, the last time, girl I ain't lyin'
It's the last time, the last time, I'll sing the blues for you
It's the last time, it's true
