Baby, remember i, i tried to make it right

I don't know what to do

It's mind over matter, it don't matter

If your love is true, remember now

It's mind over matter, it don't matter

If your love is true

Baby, baby, you can make me run faster now

Ooh baby, don't you know, they're comin' through

It's mind over matter, it don't matter

If your love is true, remember now

It's mind over matter, it don't matter

If your love is true (true)

Babe, treat me soft

You always make me feel you wanna

I say, thank you so much, remember

It's mind over matter, it don't matter

If your love is true, remember now

It's mind over matter, it don't matter

If your love is true (true true true true)

It's mind over matter, it don't matter

If your love is true, remember now

It's mind over matter, it don't matter

If your love is true (true true true true)
