(Myles Goodwyn)

Published by Slalom Publishing Co. - BMI

Hey lady, come on baby
What's your reason for the things you do
You want somethin', but don't need nothin'
Tell me baby, whatcha tryin' to do

Cause I got me someone, that's right
She keeps me warm when it's cold at night
She gives me love and learns to stand in with the things you do, oh yeah
And I need her, never leave her
Not for you, not for rock 'n' roll
And I need her, never leave her
Not for you, not for rock 'n' roll, alright

Act funny, some day honey
It's gonna get you in another jam
It's crazy, you're too much baby
Just who the hell you think I am

Cause I got me someone, that's right
She keeps me warm when it's cold at night
She gives me love and learns to stand in with the things you do, oh yeah
And I need her, never leave her
Not for you, not for rock 'n' roll
And I need her, never leave her
Not for you, not for rock 'n' roll
Not for rock 'n' roll, not for rock 'n' roll

You know I'd never tease her, oh yeah
I'll always try to please her, oh yeah
You know, she gives me love and learns to stand in with the things you do, oh yeah
And I need her, never leave her
Not for you, not for rock 'n' roll
And I need her, never leave her
Not for you, not for rock 'n' roll
I said I need her, never leave her
Not for you, not for rock 'n' roll
Not for rock 'n' roll, not for rock 'n' roll
Not for rock 'n' roll, not for rock 'n' roll, not for rock 'n' roll
