Anxious thoughts, filter through the haze His mind's confused and he just can't find his way, yeah He knows he just can't fake it, how will he ever make it His life before him to unfold

Tonite's the night, tonite's the night Tonite's the night he'll go out and find a way Tonite, tonite's the night Tonite, tonite

Livin' his own life, makin' his own plans Followin' his dreams, bein' his own man Livin' his way, livin' his way Livin' his way, livin' his way Livin' his own way, own way, own way

His life before him, shadows disappear Usually cloudy, is morning, thoughts are clear, yeah He knows he'd never take it, how could he ever fake it All of his worries disappear

Tonite's the night, tonite's the night Tonite's the night he'll go out and find a way Tonite, tonite, tonite, tonite
