

Aqua, Bumble Bees

I know, I'm not the only flower you see
But what can I do
You are a good looking bee
Wham bam thank you ma'am
Bumble bee bump into me
I am in for pollination
Bumble bee take what you see
I'm in need for your donation
I can't wait for your invasion

Be my love
Cause, I'm a single flower feeling free
Blooming now
Take me honey, be my favorite bee

Hey Rose, I'm ready again
I've got my radar tuned in on you, baby
I'm all set and ready to land
I'm the bum here I come
Getting ready for a wham bam

Bumble bee bump into me
I am in for pollination
Bumble bee take what you see
I'm in need for your donation
You don't need no invitation

Wham bam thank you mam
I'm going wham bam thank you ma'am
I'm a true believer that goes for what I see
And one little flower
Is not enough for a bee like me

All I know is you're my honey
And I can't say no
Just a little bit shy
And so excited when I see you fly

Hey Rose, I'm ready again
I've got my radar tuned in on you, baby
I'm all set and ready to land
I'm the bum here I come
Getting ready for a wham bam

Bumble bee bump into me
I am in for pollination
Bumble bee take what you see
I'm in need for your donation
You don't need no invitation

Wham bam thank you mam
I'm going wham bam thank you ma'am
I'm a true believer that goes for what I see
And one little flower is not enough for a bee
No one little flower is not enough for a bee like me

I know, I'm not the only flower you see
But what can I do
You are a good looking bee
Honey, it's a job it's a dream come true
You're my favorite flower
When I'm intimate with you

Wham bam thank you mam

I'm going wham bam thank you ma'am
I'm going wham bam thank you ma'am
I'm a true believer that goes for what I see
And one little flower is not enough for a bee

Going wham bam, thank you ma'am
I'm going wham bam, thank you ma'am
I'm a true believer that goes for what I see
And you, my flower ain't enough for me
