Aquaria, Lost

[John]

Memories hold the distance of my heart

To the ocean I reveal my life

In a bottle all my story goes by

To reach the sky

You gave me the keys to heaven's door

But I had to run away to find my paradise

I can't go back to you this time

But you were the only one I gave my heart to

[Captain]

" Find the way out to the light

We lost horizon's sight

There's a mystery behind

The darkness of the night"

"Look! There's light somewhere inside

I hope it is our quide

Move! We're running out of time

We have to stay alive"

[John]

I LOST MY WAY BUT FOUND MY TRUTH

NOW MY HEART BELONGS TO THESE LANDS

- TO THE LAND I CALL HOME -

I HAD IT ALL BUT NEVER COULD SEE THE LIGHT

BUT NOW I TRANSCEND

[Curupira]

"I'm the beast that rules the night

The devil in disguise

You can't run away or hide

I never lose my sight"

"Leave your weapons in my arms

And you shall stay alive

If you try to take my life

I'll burn you with my eyes"

[John]

I LOST MY WAY BUT FOUND MY TRUTH

NOW MY HEART BELONGS TO THESE LANDS

- TO THE LAND I CALL HOME -

I HAD IT ALL BUT NEVER COULD SEE THE LIGHT

BUT NOW I TRANSCEND

[Speech - Curupira]

[John]

Memories hold the distance of my heart

Through the ocean I have changed my life

In the forest all my life goes by

Alone I crv

I LOST MY WAY BUT FOUND MY TRUTH

NOW MY HEART BELONGS TO THE LANDS

TO THE LAND I CALL HOME

You gave me the reason I looked for

You gave me the chance to find the way to paradise

I know that I owe you a promise to fulfill

In the river I will give you my soul
