

Arabesque, Take Me Don't Break Me

He picks me up in his Jaguar
The lady-killer
the movie star.
I'm the girl who won the price
To spend an ev'ning by his side.
The night is warm and the moon is full -
We drink Champagne in the swimming-pool.
He kisses me but I have no fear

When I feel that heaven is near
I say:

Take me

Take me
don't break me

Break me.
Take me

Take me don't break me

Break me.
Your love is only dynamite -
It is a most exiting night.
What I feel is pure delight

Take me
don't break me.

The famous sheik of Araby

He seems to like the looks of me.
We're drinking coffee in his tent and when he starts to hold my hand

He says. "You will be my Harem Queen

A girl like you I've never seen.
I have a hundred wives or more
But you're the one I've waited for"
I say:

Take me
