

Aranda, Testify

I came to resurrect this body from the ashes of the grave
To walk upon the road less traveled before I lose my faith
I came to testify to the new king before you look away
Just let me testify, I gotta testify Lord

(Chorus) Sometimes the world is so wrong, I cant just stand here but I cant take it, no, I came to testify
I had to beg, I had to crawl to break free of these chains
Now here I stand, Im a broken man and I dont wanna let it change
I came to testify to the rest of my people said Im not alone
And if the question still lies just let me testify

Chorus

Testify! Love will lead you on Love will lead you, love will lead you on Testify! And I never ever wanna be the fool again
Cause you got me on my, got me on my knees
Got me on my knees
