

Arcade Fire, We Exist

Walking around
Head full of sound
Acting like
We don't exist

Walk in a room
Stare after you
Talking like
We don't exist

But we exist

Doubt it's true
I'm different from you
But tell me why they treat me like this?

You turned away
What would I say
You're not the first to (?) a kiss.

Maybe it's true
They're staring at you
As you walk in a room
Tell them it's fine
Stare if you like
Just let us through
Just let us through

Down on my knees
Begging us please
Praying that we don't exist

Doubting is fine
I'm used to them now
But tell me why they treat me like this?

Is it because I do it like this?

Let them stare! Let them stare!
That's all they can do!
But it's not fair!
(?)

Never looked so scared
Will you watch us now?

You know we're breaking through
But will you watch us (??)?
What are you so afraid to lose?

Down on my knees
Begging us please
Praying that we don't exist

Down on my knees
Begging us please
Praying that we don't exist

But we exist!
We exist!

Down on my knees
Begging us please
Praying that we don't exist

Down on my knees
Begging us please
Praying that we don't exist

But we exist!
We exist!
