

Arch Enemy, Machtskampf

Flying high on blackened wings
Vengeance in my eyes
Colder than steel, instantly real
A new power flows in me
Reaching out for something
Knowing that it's there - Somewhere
All I had was
All I gave
Was it not enough?
You took
You take
Never giving anything back
Bridges that I thought I crossed
Got to cross them all again
These paths that lead to nowhere
Mocked me all my life
Make a change
Break the chain
Make a change
End this game
Vengeance in my eyes
A new power flows in me
