

Arch Enemy, No Gods, No Masters

Here I am, back to the wall
I pick the fight against the tide
Free at last, I go my own way
I will resist them 'til the day I die
I am who I am
My time has come!
I am who I am - take it or leave it
A rebel at heart!
No gods, no masters
My time has come
There is no sacred place, no perfect world
Your head is home, freedom in your heart
Be strong, take this chance
Make your way - a better future calls
I am who I am
My time has come!
I am who I am - take it or leave it
A rebel at heart!
No gods, no masters
My time has come
No gods, no masters!
No gods, no masters!
What doesn't kill us
Makes us stronger
Locked and loaded
Ready to strike
Here we stand
Loud and proud
United as one
United as one
I am who I am - take it or leave it
A rebel at heart!
No gods, no masters
My time has come
I am who I am - take it or leave it
A rebel at heart!
No gods, no masters
My time has come
