

Arch Enemy, The Day You Died

A precious child
With an innocent mind
Born to suffer in this life
Or for another

So hopeless and relentless
Falls this remorseless day
The dark remains
Of a violent world

The day you died
My tears ran dry
I feel you
I hear you
Echo in my soul
I failed you
I miss you so
The day you died
Echoes in my soul

-Solo-

This world's on fire
Turned it's back on us
A lost horizon
Let behind

So hopeless and relentless
Falls this remorseless day
The dark reality
Of a hostile world

The day you died
My tears ran dry
I feel you
I hear you
Echo in my soul
I failed you
I miss you so
The day you died
Echoes in my soul

-Solo-

The day you died
My tears ran dry
I feel you
I hear you
Echo in my soul
I failed you
I miss you so
The day you died
Echoes in my soul
