

Archers Of Loaf, The Worst Defense

They're running on their worst defense, defenses.
They're running on their worst defense, defenses.
They're running on their worst defense, defenses.
They're running on their worst defense, defenses.

No light,
Guides you.

Leads you on.
Blinds you.

The voice that cracks the latest pressure.
Chips, their finest phrase that pays you
Off, with hands you can't depend on
For the best defense.
