

Archers Of Loaf, You And Me

I've been so down lately.
You've been so low lately.
Nothing seems to work out for you and me.
For you and me.

I've been so down lately.
You've been so low lately.
Nothing seems to work out for you and me.

Sister says we can buy it all back at the grocery store.
Baby brother really fucked it up this time.
This isn't fun anymore, it's not as fun as it was.
It's just the girl in her says it doesn't matter anyway. (?)

I've been so down lately.
You've been so low lately.
Nothing seems to work out for you and me.
