

Architecture In Helsinki, Kindling (Clue To Kalo R

You won't count to seven, it's usually 'til ten To hell with Sydney girls, you're much better than them
On my mattress I've been drawing a line where I'll shut my eyes and where you should lie, you should lie
If you should lie

I'll be a lighter of fires
you be the fighter of fires I'll be the fighter of fires you be the lighter fires should I choose to stay here now all depends on buildings, buses, streets, trees, rain and friends

on my mattress I've been drawing a line
where I'll shut my eyes and where you should lie, you should lie
If you should lie

you'll be a fighter of fires I'll be a fighter of fires you be a lighter of fires
