

Architecture In Helsinki, Kindling (Winter Version)

You won't count to seven, it's usually 'til ten To hell with Sydney girls, you're much better than them
On my mattress I've been drawing a line where I'll shut my eyes and where you should lie, you should lie
If you should lie

I'll be a lighter of fires
you be the fighter of fires I'll be the fighter of fires you be the lighter fires should I choose to stay here now all depends on buildings, buses, streets, trees, rain and friends

on my mattress I've been drawing a line
where I'll shut my eyes and where you should lie, you should lie
If you should lie

you'll be a fighter of fires I'll be a fighter of fires you be a lighter of fires
