

Archive, We Are The Same

Sometimes I think we're not the same
Till I obey, oh
Sometimes I think we're all the same

In the night time
In the darkest time
All magnified
So I follow blind
In the day time
In the lightest time
You're not my kind

I'm terrified I analyse
Being you

Sometimes I think we're not the same
Till I obey, oh
Sometimes I think we're all the same

In the night time
In the darkest time
All magnified
So I follow blind
In the day time
In the lightest time
You're not my kind
The bones are breaking
So it goes
It's always shaking
And I follow

I'm terrified
I analyse this
I'm terrified
Of becoming this

Sometimes I think we're not the same
Till I obey, oh
Sometimes I think we're all the same

In the night time
In the darkest time
All magnified
So I follow blind
In the day time
In the lightest time
You're not my kind
