

Arcwelder, Finish My Song

(s. macdonald)

When the night is turned to coal black and all I have are wounds in my back And I'm looking for a smile that will save me for awhile Now some will call it reckless to wear my heart like a necklace But it seems they'd never miss me and I want someone to kiss me Don't wanna be looking anymore
don't wanna be missing anymore
I wanna have I wanna have

Finish my song

When I'm doing what I'm able and I choke under the label And I'm looking for a friend so it won't happen again Now they tie me to the desktop 'cause the cycle never will stop And I want to get away live to fight another day
Don't wanna be looking anymore
don't wanna be missing anymore
I wanna have I wanna have

Finish my song
