

Arcwelder, Will When You Won't

(w. graber)

And you say you will when you won't
Thought that you do but you don't
So far lost it's hard to find
Felt all alone but I don't mind
And now you'll sing a sad sad song
And all those friends that did you wrong
Well who was right and who was wrong?
And where's the one who's just like you?

[Chorus]

(I has it all he said)
What if the universe is cold
Y'know
What if there's nothing there at all... at all... at all

Tears of joy and tears of pain
But it all starts to look the same
How do you say what you don't know
You make the words up as you go
And now you'll sing a song so sad
And think of all the friends you had Well who was right and who was had
And where's the one who's just like you?

[Chorus]

And worry 'bout things that come and go
If no one knows then no one knows

(I has it all he said)
What if the universe is cold
Y'know
(And I didn't say a word)
What if there's nothing there at all... at all... at all
